Contoso employees must act honestly, fairly, and respectfully in all business activities.

Conflicts of interest: Employees must disclose actual or potential conflicts to Ethics & Compliance before participating in a decision affected by the conflict.

Gifts and hospitality: Employees may accept modest business hospitality only when it is lawful, infrequent, reasonable, and does not influence a business decision. Cash gifts are prohibited.

Confidential information: Employees must not disclose confidential company, customer, employee, or partner information to unauthorized persons.

Records: Business records must be accurate, complete, and retained according to the applicable retention schedule.

Speak-up: Employees may report suspected misconduct without retaliation for good-faith reporting.

Managers must escalate credible allegations of fraud, harassment, bribery, discrimination, or material policy violations to the appropriate control function.
